Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, During his service as director of athletics at The University of South Dakota in the 1970s, Dr. Carl Miller conceived of the multipurpose athletic, physical education, and recreation facility known as the Dakota Dome; and,

Whereas, Dr. Miller became the principal advocate of the Dakota Dome project, leading the private fundraising and promotional development of the facility; and,

Whereas, The Dakota Dome has become the most prominent athletic and recreational facility in South Dakota, hosting the annual South Dakota high school football championships among other events, due to Dr. Miller's vision; and,

Whereas, Dr. Miller's subsequent career has taken him to several other locations where he performed similar visionary services for institutions of higher education and communities; and,

Whereas, Dr. Miller will return to The University of South Dakota campus on September 18, 2004, on the occasion of the intercollegiate football game between The University of Wisconsin at LaCrosse (Dr. Miller's alma mater) and The University of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Dr. Miller will be recognized by The University of South Dakota for his leadership in making the Dakota Dome a reality:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 18, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I urge all citizens to take note of Dr. Miller's contribution to South Dakota in the development of the Dakota Dome and other good and valuable achievements at The University of South Dakota and in other venues of his distinguished career.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-seventh Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds
